2017 Queen's College Alumni/ae Workshop May 4th, 2017

Bishop Jane Alexander, M.Ed., M.T.S., Ph.D.

The Right Reverend Jane Alexander will provide a talk in ways in which the church is called to be active in the world and how we can better equip people to become true disciples of Christ. How do we take the marks of mission and help them leap off the page and into other parts and make it a rule of life.”

Bishop Jane Alexander was born in England. On moving to Canada she earned a Master's Degree in Education and a Ph.D. in Educational Psychology, both from the University of Alberta. She earned a Master's degree in Theological Studies in 2001 from Newman Theological College. She was ordained to the priesthood in 2001, served in several parishes in the Diocese of Edmonton and became Dean in 2006. Jane was consecrated and installed as Bishop of Edmonton on May 11th, 2008, In March 2014 she joined Mayor Don Iveson in Co-chairing the EndPovertyEdmonton Task Force, a group of community leaders with the ambitious goal of ending poverty in Edmonton in a generation.
