Pastoral Studies 3472-Q: Supervised Practice of Ministry

All ordination track students are required to do SPM before they begin their 2nd year of study.

For those who are doing the B.Th. (Distance) it is normally done at the completion of your 15 Associate courses, unless your Bishop needs you to do it sooner to meet the needs of the local church.

SPM is also open to non-ordination track students who are interested in a supervised semester of chaplaincy. This is a full-time program (it counts for 4 courses in the Bachelor/Master’s Program) that requires students to be in their placements or at class for 8 hours each day. The first week is an intensive week that requires all students to be physically present for class (usually at Queen’s College in St. John’s). Students also gather for three days near the end of the program.

Instructor: Dr. Carmel Doyle
Time: April 20th – July 9th
April 20th – April 24th: mandatory in class instruction from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. @ Queen’s College
April 27th – July 3rd: Pastoral Placement, various locations. TBD
July 6th & 9th: in class in Corner Brook from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
