

1. That Queen's College award honorary degrees, subject to strict criteria.
2. Honorary degree would be:
 - » Doctor of Divinity (D.D.) (honoris causa)
 - » Doctor of Canon Law (D.Cn.L.) (honoris causa)
 - » Doctor of Sacred Letters (D.S.Litt.) (honoris causa)
3. Criteria:
 - a) i. Normally, no more than one honorary degree to be awarded in an academic year; (recognizing that in some very special circumstances more than one may be awarded; and on occasion none may be awarded).
 - ii. No honorary degrees to be awarded in absentia.
 - b) D.D. would be awarded to clergy who:
 - i. have given distinguished service to the Church and the community; or
 - ii. have outstanding achievement in academic leadership, teaching and/or scholarship.
 - c) D.Cn.L. would be awarded to members of the laity who have served the Church with distinction
 - d) D.S.Litt. would be awarded to persons who have served the Church with distinction especially in the areas of Arts and Letters.
4. Process:
 - a) Suggestions will be considered by the Nominating Committee consisting of the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, another member of the Corporation, and a member of Faculty.
 - b) This Committee will present a nomination to the Corporation at its fall meeting.
 - c) Affirmative votes from at least two-thirds of the members of the Corporation are required to approve the awarding of an honorary degree to the nominee.
